

People power

2,319 volunteer days, equivalent to 11 full time people
working on the project

Scottish Invasive Species Initiative

2018 : A YEAR IN NUMBERS

www.invasivespecies.scot

Controlling invasive non-native plants

342

volunteers undertook invasive plant control

169

volunteer days pulling Himalayan balsam

836

volunteer days
controlling plants

736km
of Giant hogweed treated

24,965

Japanese knotweed stems
injected with herbicide

1,483

volunteer days spent monitoring rafts

195

volunteers monitored
mink rafts

385

mink rafts and traps in our surveillance network

Stopping mink in their tracks

62

events, talks and walks delivered

Learning & training

49

schools & colleges learnt
about invasive species

41

volunteers gained pesticide application qualifications

